THE SPECTRUM WINE TEAM

Jason Boland

President

Jason Boland has led Spectrum Wine Auctions from its inception in 2009 over $120 million in total sales in just five years. His prior experience managing and developing auction technology for Spectrum Wine's sister companies in coins and stamps, along with his passion and knowledge of fine wine, have provided Jason with the strong base that has allowed him to grow Spectrum Wine into a premier global wine auctioneer, with regular live auctions in the United States, Hong Kong and London, as well as online. He leads Spectrum Wine on a path of continued growth with new ideas and innovation.

Christopher Weed

Director of Operations and Wine Specialist

Chris joined in Spectrum Wine Auctions in 2011, and since then has overseen the cataloguing and sale of over 430,000 bottles of fine and rare wine that have collectively garnered over $70 million. Having attained certification as a sommelier from the prestigious Court of Master Sommeliers and having completed the WSET Advanced exam with distinction, Chris comes to Spectrum Wine Auctions with deep knowledge of fine, rare, and collectable wines as well as specific training in fine wine service, procurement, organization, storage, and tasting. Prior to joining Spectrum in 2011, Chris worked in hospitality and fine dining in Washington, DC and lived, worked, and studied in Europe for several years, spending much of his free time traveling to many of the world's great wine regions and learning French. Chris holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations and a Minor in International Economics from Franklin University Switzerland.

Dan Rhodes

Senior Consignment Director and Wine Specialist

Dan brings a broad-based wealth of knowledge and extensive experience in all major arenas of fine wine with particular expertise in rare and collectible wines from France's Bordeaux and Burgundy regions. Prior to joining Spectrum Wine Auctions, Dan worked for Hi-Time Wine Cellars, where he was responsible for buying, selling, marketing and promoting French wines, as well as teaching beginning and advanced wine classes, conducting private seminars and organizing regular tastings while interacting with clients and purveyors from various regions of the country and throughout the world. Dan holds a Master of Arts from the University of California-Irvine as well as an MBA from Concordia University in Irvine.

Amy Jimenez

Client Relations and Logistics Manager

Amy Jimenez has been an auction services coordinator under parent company Spectrum Group International since 2009, joining Spectrum Wine Auctions in early 2011. She has amassed extensive experience in inventory management and auction planning, organizing and operations, and she travels to Hong Kong frequently to serve as online bidding administrator for Spectrum Wine's live auctions. When stateside, she enjoys providing exceptional customer service to Spectrum Wine clients who require assistance with their fine wine purchases.

Amanda Keston

Consignment Director and Principal Auctioneer

Amanda comes to the company from Zachys Wine Auctions where she successfully led their West Coast Operations for more than five years. An expert in developing client relationships and planning world class events, Amanda brings a wealth of experience to the Spectrum Wine Auctions team. Prior to Zachys, Amanda worked for high-end retailer Harry Winston and auctioneer Christie's, Inc., where she facilitated the sale of millions of dollars in luxury goods such as jewelry, art and antiques while simultaneously refining her palate for fine wines. Amanda holds a Bachelor of Arts in Art History from UCSB and is very active in Los Angeles based charities, and is co-founder of The Lemonade Project, a charity that helps communities solve problems creatively.

Kerry Seaworth

Consignment Director and Wine Specialist

Kerry has extensive experience working with international clients in diverse business environments. She began her wine career as a Corporate Wine Merchant intern at the legendary wine purveyor Haskell's in Minneapolis, MN where she learned from some of the most knowledgeable wine professionals in the industry. Kerry joined the Spectrum Wine Auctions team in 2011 as a Wine Specialist while also assisting with client event planning. She holds an Award in Wine and Spirits from WSET as well as a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Carmen Lee

Asia Customer Service

Carmen Lee joined Spectrum Wine Auctions in 2011 to manage customer relations and services for Asian markets. She administers our Hong Kong office and manages customer requests, communication, wine consignment, and shipment logistics in addition to all other day-to-day requirements for our customers in Asia. She regularly attends our auctions and handles registration, bidding, and other auction services while always greeting our customers with a welcoming smile. Carmen worked in the hospitality industry prior to joining Spectrum Wine, specifically in the VIP customer services sector of one of Hong Kong's premier hotels. Her many years of experience enable her to consistently deliver the world-class quality of service our customers require.

Thomas Stein

Warehouse & Shipping Manager

Recognized as a shipping and logistics expert specializing in high-end goods, Tom joined Spectrum Wine Auctions in May 2011. As Warehouse and Shipping Manager, Tom is involved in every aspect of shipping and inventory management for Spectrum Wine Auctions. His background in logistics and inventory management combined with his interest in fine wine help facilitate key areas of business related to the company, including superior wine shipping, transport, storage and inventory control.

John Christensen

Wine Specialist

John joined the Spectrum team in August 2016 with extensive background in wine, beer, and spirits. He comes to SWA from the distribution market where he worked for industry leader Southern Glazer's Wine & Spirits with specific experience in off-premise accounts. As a Wine Specialist, he assists in thorough inspection, cataloging, organization, photography, and storage of the consignments. John holds a Bachelor of the Arts in Business Administration from University of California, Irvine, as well as certifications from the Court of Master Sommeliers and Cicerone Certification Program.

Alec Witt

Wine Specialist

Alec joined the Spectrum team in August 2017 with an extensive background in hospitality and fine dining both in restaurants and at the five-star Pelican Hill resort in Newport Beach. As a Wine Specialist, he assists in the thorough inspection, cataloging, organization, photography, and storage of fine wine consignments. Alec lived and studied in Spain and Switzerland for several years, attended the world-renowned Hotel Institute Montreux, and traveled to several of Europe's great wine regions. He holds a Bachelor of the Arts in Business Administration from Northwood University and has completed Level 1 of the Court of Master Sommeliers certification program.

INTRODUCTION TO THE SUMMER 2018 AUCTION

2018 has been a banner vintage at Spectrum Wine. Now with two wine retail locations and two wine storage locations in Orange County in addition to our auction operation, we are growing apace, and we are extremely excited to be able to bring new synergies, new products, and new services to our global customer base. In February we lowered the hammer on the extraordinary $4.2M sale of The Tower Cellar, shattering numerous world records in the process. In March we lowered the hammer on a thrilling Spring 2018 auction series that saw the sale of some 110 collections at $1.2M. In April the Spectrum team traveled to Bordeaux to taste (and to buy) the beautifully classic 2017 vintage in barrel, and we have been thrilled with the results, particularly in Pauillac, Saint-Émilion, and Pomerol. (Of course, we are very much looking forward to an exceptional 2018 Bordeaux campaign this coming Spring 2019 – stay tuned.) In May and June we lowered the hammer on an outstanding Summer 2018 auction series for $1.6M, and we are currently wrapping up a substantially larger Autumn 2018 auction series. In July, October, and November, we were honored to host three extraordinary vertical dinners with Châteaux Montrose, d'Yquem, and Margaux (if you were not able to join us, we certainly look forward to your company in the future). And this past November we were privileged to host a beautiful charity auction to benefit the local Samueli Academy, which serves local foster and underserved teens. All told, by the end of this year we will have sold some 30,000 auction Lots across 50+ auctions for hundreds of collectors from the United States, Europe, and Asia.

The current Winter 2018 sale is refreshingly diverse, including vintages ranging from 1845 to 2016, formats ranging from 0.05L to 6L, and a wide variety of grapes, styles, and Lot sizes. The auction opens with an exquisite assortment of grower Champagne from Egly-Ouriet, Jean Milan, David Léclapart, Pierre Moncuit, and Henri Billiot. It then segues seamlessly into an assortment of têtes de cuvées, including the great Vieilles Vignes Françaises 2004 and Clos du Mesnil 1988. In Bordeaux, Lafite Rothschild, Mouton Rothschild, Margaux, and the super seconds are of course represented, though the assortment of Bordeaux otherwise proves wonderfully variegated, including some lesser-known gems such as Domaine Allary Haut-Brion. Burgundy is, however, surely a highlight, including six Lots of Dauvissat Chablis, four Lots of Raveneau Chablis, three vintages of Rousseau Chambertin, six Lots of Comte Georges de Vogüé, eleven Lots of Méo-Camuzet, and eighteen Lots of Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. In California you can find no fewer than ten Lots of Screaming Eagle, eighteen Lots of Peter Michael, twenty-one Lots of Sine Qua Non, and much more. We are also thrilled to be offering a unique assortment of rare spirits, including a variety of items from Macallan, Glenfiddich, Old Forester, and more.

As always, we are honored and humbled to be able to bring such outstanding and lovingly-cellarred wines and spirits to our global customers. If you have any questions, would like additional photographs, or would like to schedule a Lot viewing, please do not hesitate to reach out. We look forward to you bidding with us at www.SpectrumWine.com up through the evening of Wednesday 12 December. Cheers!

A SELECTION OF PROMINENT COLLECTIONS

THE ALOUETTE CELLAR

This spectacular, multi-dimensional collection represents the culmination of one man's pursuit of the finest wines available from both Europe and North America. Highlights include an extensive range of offerings from any number of blue chip estates including Dunn, Spottswoode, Méo-Camuzet, Sottimano and many, many more. All of the wines offered for bid procure have been lovingly and appropriately stored in this collector's personally managed wine storage facility constructed specifically for the goal of housing this magnificent trove.

THE CIGOGNE CELLAR

This single-owner collection has been stored since acquisition at a professionally managed wine storage facility. All wines were acquired upon release through reputable, longstanding retail sources.

THE DIPLOMAT'S CELLAR

This extraordinary collection – only a small portion of his total – represents the passion of a lifelong collector. All wines have been lovingly stored at a professional-managed, temperature- and humidity-controlled wine storage facility and were transported to our Orange County facility under proper temperature control.

THE GREAT WILSHIRE CULT CELLAR, PART XIX

Our long-time bidders will recognize this collection. One of our oldest and most frequent consignors, The Great Wilshire Cult Cellar is not to be missed. Releasing bits and pieces at a time, this collector gives us glimpses into his noteworthy cellar which covers all corners of the world. This collection has been meticulously acquired (mostly upon release) and stored in a beautiful custom-built home cellar.

THE HALF MOON COLLECTION

This sweeping collection offers our bidders a unique opportunity to substantially bulk up their cellars or to thoroughly stock their next soirée. These lots, predominantly in full and half case quantities in their original cartons, span the great regions of Alsace, Piedmont, Champagne, Bordeaux, Burgundy, the Rhône Valley, and California across all conceivable price points. This is an exclusively single-owner collection that has been stored at a professional temperature- and humidity-controlled wine storage facility since their acquisition. This pristine collection of world-class wines truly offers something for everyone.

THE LORAINE COLLECTION

The Lorraine Collection captures the ongoing passion and diverse interests of one of southern California's most active wine aficionados. Every offering contained herein has been acquired directly through reputable wholesale and retail channels and has been stored professionally at one of southern California's top wine storage facilities.

THE NEWSLETTER CELLAR: LEGACY SELECTIONS FROM A RENOWNED COLLECTOR

The Newsletter Cellar represents the life-long passion of one of America's most admired and respected collectors. Celebrated for both his impeccable palate as well as his sound intuitive judgement, this individual long ago had the foresight and uncanny ability to maximize the pleasure quotient of his collection through purchase of highly sought-after wines with favorable price/score ratios.

THE SAXON CELLAR

This long-time collector lovingly collected wines throughout his tenure as a former member of the trade. All wines offered in conjunction with this sale were imported directly from Europe and stored professionally in a San Francisco Bay Area wine storage facility.

THE SUNSET BOULEVARD COLLECTION, PART III

Purchased upon release, this collection focuses on cult California wines—particularly Screaming Eagle. Our team picked up and transported these bottles from the collector's home cellar which was kept at the perfect temperature and humidity levels.

THE WINE PIONEER COLLECTION

The Wine Pioneer is back on the trail again with another eclectic assemblage of wines and rare spirits sourced from his own custom temperature- and humidity-controlled storage facility in southern California. As a former active and successful participant in the trade, the Wine Pioneer has long appreciated the wines of his native California as well as those of his adopted homeland of France. We are proud to offer another installment of unique and exciting lots from this legendary and historical personage's dynamic and ever-evolving collection.

THE ZAUBERBERG COLLECTION

This extraordinary collection verily represents the loftiest peak of quality German and Austrian wine. A veritable Matterhorn of age-worthy Riesling and Champagne, The Zaubenberg Collection contains some of the most renowned and highly collectible names from of central Europe. Virtually all of these Teutonic masterworks have garnered high scores and critical praise from many of the world's most prestigious wine writers.

The Zaubenberg Collection is a one-owner collection which has been stored meticulously under proper temperature and humidity control. All wines have been sourced appropriately. The Zaubenberg Collection offers bidders of all ilk the opportunity to add high-quality bottlings to his or her collection which provide a stellar diversity quotient in conjunction with years of enjoyable imbibing.

Outstanding care and storage are also part of the equation. This is a one-owner collection. All of the wines contained herein were sourced appropriately and have been carefully stored at one of southern California's most prestigious professional wine storage facilities. This particular assemblage is replete with Bordeaux bargains and rarities from both the Right and Left Banks. Bid with full confidence on any of these remarkable lots.

Jean Milan Blanc de Blancs Grand Cru Réserve Brut NV

Oger, Grand Cru

"There is an interesting hint of quinine water to the otherwise yeasty and notably citrus-infused nose. The delicious, round and noticeably refined flavors carry the same yeasty character as telegraphed by the nose, all wrapped in a solidly complex and persistent finish. This is really quite good and while some may find the quinine component a bit far afield, overall I was impressed." [Score: 91]

David Léclapart Blanc de Blancs L'Artiste Extra Brut 2007

Trépail, Premier Cru

"...a superb example of young Blanc de Blancs. The bouquet wafts from the glass in a refined mix of pear, delicious apple, crème patissière, gentle nuttiness, a complex base of chalky minerality, apple blossoms, a whisper of buttery oak and incipient smokiness in the upper register. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, brisk and rock solid at the core, with fine focus and grip, elegant mousse, laser-like focus and a very long, nascently complex and snappy finish. The balance here is impeccable, but this is still a young wine and without any dosage, bottle age is going to be needed to soften up some of the sharp edges. It will be brilliant in good measure, but exercise a bit of patience!" [Score: 93]

Egly-Ouriet V. P. Vieillessement Prolongé Extra Brut NV

Champagne, Grand Cru

"The NV Extra Brut Grand Cru V.P. (Vieillessement Prolongé), Egly-Ouriet's from Ambonnay, Bouzy and Verzenay, is stellar. A towering, deeply expressive wine, the V.P. possesses stunning depth to match its spherical, textured personality. As is the custom here, the V.P. spent 76 months on its lees, yet it remains vibrant, poised and deeply refreshing. A host of chalk, white pepper, dried rose petal and red stone fruits wrap around the intense finish. Aging in oak shapes the wine beautifully here. What a gorgeous Champagne this is. "The fascinatingly copper-colored 2004 Dom Pérignon Rosé has a beautifully delicate bouquet of red fruits, and indicates a great purity and freshness. Kept on the lees for at least nine years to smooth the tannins the 2004 reveals a weightless power on the palate. It has a deep and concentrated, highly elegant Pinot character (though Chardonnay and Pinot are more or less 50/50), and is full of finesse and freshness. The 2004 is intense and vinous, yet pure, precise and extremely fine. Adorable. During a visit at Dom Pérignon in Hautvillers in March this year, I tasted the three recent vintages of the prestige cuvée plus the often-underrated 1998. In the glass the wine has a luminous golden color and an intense and fresh aroma from the fullness of the fruit with notes of citrus, ripe passion fruit, star anise and gooseberry, followed by a gourmandize sensation of hazelnut butter and toasted barley with a saline hint that will return in the flavor but which in the nose is a cloud of chalk. Bollinger R.D. Extra Brut 2002

Champagne

"Super fresh, this is striking given the 10 years in the cellars; it has a fine citrus nose - plenty of lemon, grapefruit, yellow chalky notes, some lighter floral elements too. The palate is super dry (dosage at 3-4g) and there's a silky, sherbet-like texture, smooth, fine and long. The citrus flavours give way to the driving surging acidity, thunderous acidity, really driving and powerful. The finish twists very slowly through to light-toasted cashew fruit flavours, but lemon citrus prevails. This is thrilling Champagne. Disgorged 22nd October, 2013."

"It's hard to imagine how a wine of this power can sustain perfect balance. What is now a more nonchalant intensity in the aroma was, in fact, too much to handle when we tasted this last year, as if the wine had no time for mere humans with their limited sense receptors. If you stop to taste ripe pear, ginger spice, apple blossom and butterscotch the wine leaves you lost in random flavor descriptors as it soars off into a vinous glow that lasts for minutes. This may well be the greatest vintage wine of Henri Krug's career (unless it is challenged by the 2002). "The wine needs a good 7-10 years of cellaring and should keep for 30 more years, but this is the finest Cantemerle I have encountered in my professional career of tasting young vintages (dating back 34 years now). Stunningly deep ruby/purple, with a beautiful nose of spring flowers intermixed with perfumed raspberry and blueberry notes, it exhibits a sort of cool-climate character. Broad, rich and intense on the palate, the wine has plenty of tannins, but they are sweet and well-integrated. Everything is delicately entwined into this beautiful, medium to full-bodied, dense purple wine, which shows stunning character and a prodigious potential for development. Pauillac, 1er Cru Classé

"This wine remains one of the legends of Bordeaux. It has thrown off the backward, youthful style that existed during its first 25 years of life, and over the last 4-5 years has developed such secondary nuances as cedar and spice box. The crème de cassis, underlying floral note, full-bodied power, extraordinary purity, multilayered texture, and finish of over a minute are a showcase for what this Château accomplished in 1982. The wine is still amazingly youthful, vibrant, and pure. It appears capable of remaining fruity and vibrant in 2082! Bélaire-Monange 2009

Saint-Émilion, 1er Grand Cru Classé (B)

"It is hard to believe that Christian Moueix and his family firm only took full control of Château Bélaire in 2008, given the monumental quality of the 2009. The estate had been in need of some serious investment in both the vineyards and the cellars for decades, and the Moueix firm is committed to do everything necessary to take one of the greatest terroirs on the Côte of St. Émilion and bring it back to prominence. As Christian Moueix related, the vineyards at Bélaire are all very old vines, but they are not in great shape and it will be necessary to do some replanting to augment the old vines over the coming years. However, in 2009 there were only old vines to work with, and the Moueix family has certainly brought out all their magic in this vintage. The yields ended up being ridiculously low in '09 at Bélaire-Monange, as the old vines produced less than fourteen hectoliters per hectare in this vintage. The resulting wine is unequivocally brilliant, as it soars from the glass in a classic, traditional mélange of red and black cherries, raw cocoa, tobacco leaf, very complex soil tones and a discreet touch of nutty oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied and even a tad more soil-driven than Magdelaine this year, with suave tannins, fine acids, impeccable focus and balance and a beautifully long, complex and utterly sophisticated finish. A great wine." [Score: 94-96+]

"In 2012 there is only a small quantity of Blason de L'Évangile. Flowering meant there was only 31hl/ha and 73% of the crop went into the Grand Vin. The Merlot was picked between 20th September and 9th October and the Cabernet Franc from 6th to the 8th October, between which on only eight days did pickers go out with their secateurs. Of the parcels originating from their purchase of La Croix de Gay, three hectares was blended into Blason whilst one hectare situated between Lafleur and Providence was good enough for the Grand Vin. A blend of 93% Merlot and 7% Cabernet Franc, almost identical to the previous vintage and delivering a relatively high 14.4% alcohol, it has a finely tuned, forest floor-scented bouquet with crisp red berry fruit – quite conservative but showing impressive delineation. The palate is medium-bodied with a tense, saline entry. This is a typical masculine L'Évangile – broody and introspective at the moment. It benefited from the addition of several newly acquired old vine parcels close to Le Pin in 2012, bringing an extra level of concentration. The result is the best wine in the Moueix portfolio in 2012, a step up from Trotanoy, showing soft, almost granular tannins, silky texture, fresh acidity and beautifully integrated oak. Leafy and complex, this is a fine, nuanced Pomerol that seduces rather than coerces, with near perfect balance and a finish that lingers on the palate." [Score: 97]

"One of the unquestioned stars of the vintage, the 2014 Vieux Château Certan soars out of the glass with aromatic intensity, bright acids and finely sculpted fruit. Cool, intense but very much reserved in the style of the year, the 2014 exudes class. The flavors are intense and vibrant throughout. Dark red and purplish-hued stone fruit, lavender, mint and spice lead into the striking finish. The 2014 is just as impressive today as it was from barrel. Vieux Château Certan 2011

Pomerol

"The Vieux Château Certan was cropped between 6th and 7th of September and from 14th until 20th September. That's what you'll read everywhere, although I was filming Alexandre when he was picking the final Cabernet around the 29th September! Cropped at 37hl/ha, it is a blend of 70% Merlot, 1% Cabernet Sauvignon and (yay!) 29% Cabernet Franc. It delivers 13.6 degrees alcohol with a total acidity of 3.5gms/L and an IPT of 83. After the Cabernet Franc-less 2009 and 2010, this is more what I consider to be a classic VCC nose and as Alexandre, unlike those previous vintages that gives you everything up front, this is far more intellectual and enigmatic with hints of mineral laden fruit, limestone and small dark cherries. It is beautifully defined yet distant. The palate is succinctly balanced with crisp acidity, exceptional balance and superb backbone. There is an undercurrent of masculinity, a saline tincture, crushed stone and a touch of dried herbs and yet these are just fleeting hints. It has enormous length and it is one of the very few that could be on the same ethereal plateau as the 2009 and 2010 and perhaps one day ... even better. Tasted April 2012." [Score: 96-98]

"Tasted at the chateau with Olivier Berrouet, who confirmed that the Petrus 2008 was 'seasoned' with 1.5% Cabernet Franc and raised in 50% new and 50% one-fill barrels. Like nearby Lafleur, the nose is reticent at first, but then suddenly at around sixty second the bouquet blossoms to offer violets, fresh raspberry, cold limestone a slight savoury edge, perhaps engendered by the Cabernet Franc. The palate is medium-bodied with exceptionally fine balance, linear at first but my God, the back-palate does not know what has hit it! Georges Roumier Bonnes-Mares 1999

Chambolle-Musigny, Grand Cru

"In my memory, I cannot think of a more generous and flamboyant young Roumier Bonnes-Mares than the stunning 1999. That said, the wine was decidedly more closed out of bottle at the domaine in January (a scant few months before this tasting), and it may well be that once it has settled in after its trans-Atlantic journey. The profound bouquet soars from the glass to deliver a potpourri of sappy black cherries, plums, herb tones, vinesmoke, espresso intense minerality, a touch of game and a delicate framing of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is full-bodied, deep and lush, with a great core of fruit in reserve, impeccable focus and balance, and great length and nascent complexity on the ripely tannic and opulent finish. I suspect that this wine will shut down with some time in the bottle, only to emerge in a decade as one of the most impressive Roumier Bonnes-Mares of Christophe's impressive tenure. Great young juice." [Score: 96+]

Georges Roumier Bonnes-Mares 1971

Chambolle-Musigny, Grand Cru

"I have had the pleasure of having this many times over the years but this bottle was the best that I have ever had, even besting this wine from two magnums. This is a serious wine of huge proportions with a lush, opulent, ripe and mature nose of spice and dried rose petals that evidences absolutely no signs of sous bois or over ripeness. The big, robust and muscular flavors are classy, refined and still solidly structured though the tannins are buried beneath all of the extract and all of this immense depth is wrapped in huge length. This will drink well for another 20 years if properly stored as it is a monument, but for all of its size and punch, it possesses superb balance. In a word, brilliant. Multiple and relatively consistent notes." [Score: 97]

Chambolle-Musigny, Grand Cru

"Prepare to be transported. A positively brilliant nose of violet and rose petal shines against a background of intensely spiced extravagant red and black pinot fruit nuanced by hints of earth and stone and this minerality continues onto the surprisingly supple flavors that convey a remarkable sense of energy and power on the almost unbelievably intense, focused and structured finish that seems to go on and on without end. And the '05 VV has what all truly great burgundies have which is that extra dimension of power without weight as this carries terrific punch and power yet delivers that explosiveness with impeccable class and grace. While I am duly mindful of the many legendary wines this domaine has produced (see the database for all vintages reviewed dating to 1919), the 2005 could very well join the list of the all time greats, there is really that much potential here. Whether it will ultimately transcend the heights achieved by the 1919 or the 1949 (among many others) remains an open question, I have zero doubt that 2005 will be a genuinely great vintage for this wine. Brilliance personified and absolutely a 'wow' wine, in fact, this merits a double 'wow'." [Score: 99]

Leaving the sample for ten minutes, it unfurls and offers subtle scents of Italian cured meats, orange blossom and white peach. Close your eyes and you could almost imagine this being a serious white Grand Cru!! The palate is medium-bodied and armed with filigree tannins. It is so light on its feet on the entry that you barely notice the structure that is so tensile and lends this wine the symmetry of the Grands Echezeaux. "The 2009 Richebourg is a fabulous, statuesque wine. The aromas and flavors display fabulous delineation, clarity and intensity, while the tannins are impressively firm yet refined. This is a delicious, elegant Richebourg that should drink well relatively early, but that also appears to have the potential to age well I tasted these wines with Bernard Gros in his underground tasting room, which is part batcave and part piano bar. Towards the end of a long day, a change of pace from the frigid cellars of Burgundy was quite welcome. Bernard Gros harvested on the early side in 2009, which he mostly attributes to the clones he planted beginning in the mid 1980s. The fruit was completely destemmed and yields were around 40 hectoliters per hectare. Cuvaision lasted 10-12 days. After debourbage the wines were racked into new oak barrels. Gros left the wines on their fine lees for 12 months, and did some batonnage pre-malo. The house style seeks ripeness and textural richness, which every wine I tasted reflected...All of the 2009s were bottled in February 2011." [Score: 96]

Though it may not be quite as elegant as the Romanée St. Vivant it is arguably even more aromatically complex with a wonderfully fresh if restrained nose of hoisin, black fruit, soy and anise. There is remarkable concentration of dry extract that completely buffers the otherwise tightly wound tannic spine while pushing it to the background as the broad-shouldered flavors culminate in a balanced, long and velvety mineral-inflected finish that delivers astonishing persistence. "This is perhaps even more floral than the Richebourg and every bit as spicy on the ultra-pure, cool and remarkably elegant mix of red and blue pinot fruit, red currant and wild red berries that are openly mineral-inflected. As with all of the DRC '10s, the equally stony flavors and supporting tannins are extremely fine and while there is ample power and vibrancy, the palate feel is all silk and satin. To be sure, this is a big wine with impressive concentration but this is definitely not cut from the same cloth as say the 2005 or 2009 versions are. I can admire both styles but this one is seriously lovely. Readers should note however that while the 2010 LT is exceptionally fine it will still require some 20 to 25 years of cellar time before it reaches its full majority but when it does, it will be considered one of the all-time great vintages for this incredibly storied wine. "The 2007 Carema Etichetta Nera is a little less aromatically complex than the Etichetta Bianca and more full-bodied through the mid-palate and finish. It boasts superb juiciness in its dark cherries, plums, sweet herbs and spices. The oak is exceptionally well-integrated in this vintage. Ferrando Carema Etichetta Bianca 2007

Carema

"Ferrando's 2007 Carema Etichetta Bianca doesn't even need to be tasted, the bouquet alone is extraordinary. Sweet rose petals, tar, licorice and star anise are just some of the nuances that waft from the glass in this striking Nebbiolo. The tannins are firm, yet silky, but nevertheless are a sure sign this is a wine from one of Piedmont's northerly appellations. As it sits in the glass the wine acquires more depth in a virtuosic display of class and elegance. This is an immensely pleasurable bottle of wine that can be enjoyed now or cellared."

Carema

"The 2006 Carema Etichetta Bianca is simply beautiful. Bright red cherries, flowers, sweet mountain herbs are just some of the nuances that emerge from this high-toned, intensely perfumed Nebbiolo. As is typical of the wines of this cool-climate appellation, the Etichetta Bianca is a decidedly focused, wiry Nebbiolo that screams for food. It is a fabulous effort from Ferrando, but ideally the wine is best left alone for another few years. Increasingly I find myself gravitating more towards the Etichetta Bianca over the more overt, supposedly higher-end Etichetta Nera." [Score: 93]

"The 2005 Barolo Monprivato is a very pretty, harmonious wine endowed with tons of purity in its fruit. All of the telltale aromas and flavors of Monprivato are there – geraniums, roses, spices and flowers – but backed up by quite a bit of heft and body as well. Today, the 2005 Monprivato is quite tannic, but it should come around with a few more years in bottle. In some ways, the 2005 reminds me of the 1999, another vintage in which the Ca d'Morissio was not produced. Monprivato is typically one of the hardest wines to accurately assess when young, and only time will tell what heights it ultimately reaches. For now, the future certainly seems bright. This is a mysterious, seductive Monprivato that will be fascinating to follow. Mascarello was especially selective with his Monprivato and only bottled about 50% of his production. He also blended in the juice kept separately for the Ca d'Morissio, which in this vintage is about 20% of the final blend as opposed to the more typical 10% in vintages when the Ca d'Morissio is produced." Brunello di Montalcino

"As you can well imagine, the 2004 Brunello di Montalcino Cerretalto was absolutely explosive on the palate, and even more so because it followed the stylistically traditional, more understated and more ethereal wines from Montalcino in this tasting—such as Cerbaiona and Salvioni. Giacomo Neri's Brunello would stand tall among the wines from Bolgheri and coastal Tuscany, given the thicker extraction, textural richness and power he strives to achieve. Despite the more robust Bordelaise style, the wine maintains a brilliant sense of balance, finesse and poise that is only evident in the greatest expressions of Brunello. When Robert Parker and I asked our audience to name their favorite wines in this flight of ten, the Cerretalto and the Masseto garnished the most votes. The wine is supple and velvety in texture with a long, polished finish. My favorite quality in great Brunello are the balsam herb aromas you get with Sangiovese that is ripened with deep diurnal shifts between day and nighttime temperatures right before harvest. It's a phenomenal wine with just about everything I've found in the finest Howell Mountain examples, with even more concentration and great aromatics. It offers sweet crème de cassis and blackberry fruit intermixed with acacia flowers, licorice and graphite. Some earthiness is present, but the wine is magnificently built, structured and capable of lasting 40-50 years, which is not overstating it, given the fact that the first vintages of Randy Dunn, such as 1979, 1981 and 1982, are still going strong at close to 40 years of age." Opaque purple, with blueberry and blackberry fruit, a hint of incense and subtle toast, the wine has great intensity, incredible richness and, again, a floral blue- and black-fruited nose and flavor profile that is remarkable. The finish goes on for close to a minute. This is slightly more tightly knit than the more ostentatious 2012, but both are wines to taste and drink before you die! This is an incredible lineup of wines from Ann Colgin, her winemaker Allison Tazuet and Bordeaux winemaking consultant Dr. Alain Raynaud. Of course, they have David Abreu, the superstar of viticulturalists, looking after their vineyards which, based on those I've seen at Tychson Hill and the IX Estate, are meticulously and fastidiously maintained as well as drop-dead beautiful terroirs. The 2012s, which I reviewed from bottle before, have gone from strength to strength at the top of the qualitative pyramid. This prodigious effort should continue to drink well for 20+ years. One of my all-time favorite vintages for Napa Cabernet Sauvignon, 2002 was warmer overall than 2001, but was cooler in May and throughout the summer. Unusually foggy conditions were apparent in July and August, and by September, when a warming trend began, the weather became remarkably dry and beautiful. That was followed by cool weather in early October, which allowed the grapes to be harvested under textbook conditions the 2002 Insignia, a blend of 78% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 7% Petit Verdot and 1% Malbec that hit 14.4% alcohol. Sine Qua Non Syrah Five Shooter 2010

Central Coast

"The 2010 Syrah Five Shooter is straight up gorgeous. A massive wine that somehow holds everything together, it offers a wild array of cassis, blackberry, white chocolate, underbrush and pepper that flows to a full-bodied, layered Syrah that has masses of fine tannin and enough substance to evolve for decades. A blend of 85% Syrah, 5% Grenache, 3% Petite Sirah, 5% Roussanne and 2% Viognier that was fermented with 20% whole cluster and aged 22 months in 59% new French oak, it opens up beautifully in the glass and should be decanted if drinking anytime soon." Sine Qua Non Roussanne Jinete Bajo 2008

Sta. Rita Hills

"The days of the Mr. K wines are gone forever with the tragically premature death of Austrian Alois Kracher, who had partnered with Manfred Krankl in this intriguing homage to sweet nectars. Krankl continues on his own, and in Spring, 2011, he will release the 2008 Jinete Bajo Roussanne Vin de Paille, which is named after his wife's favorite horse. Made from 100% estate fruit, with a finished alcohol level of 11.8%, a whopping 240 grams per liter of residual sugar, and 8.7 grams of acidity, this is a pure nectar of honeyed marmalade, waxy, syrupy honeysuckle, exotic crème brûlée, and citrus. The remarkable acidity cuts through the extraordinary sweetness, so the impression is fresh and vibrant. Krankl has pulled off a marvelous balancing act with this cuvee. How long will it last? I have no idea - maybe 50-100 years, but given the fact there are only 235 cases of half bottles, most of it will be consumed before 2020." [Score: 96]

"Boom! That's what happens with the perfume the moment the wine leaps from the bottle. Espresso, blackberry, caramel, jam, chocolate, spice and blueberries fill the air. Edna Valley

"For 375 ml.; from Alban Vineyard: Medium gold. Knockout nose offers pure botrytis aromas of orange oil, apricot, clove, marzipan, chocolate and mocha. Extraordinarily thick and honeyed but with bracing acids leavening the flavors of marzipan, coconut, brown sugar and orange rind. Higher-toned than the gewurztraminer, with a spicity suggestion of Gran Marnier. Krankl was about to bottle this. I have rarely tasted such thoroughly botrytized chardonnay. "Bottled in May of this year, the 2014 Cumulus Vineyard No 8 is a match for the sensational 2013. Made from 38% Syrah, 33% Grenache, 16% Touriga Nacional and the balance Mourvèdre and Petite Sirah, fermented with 43% whole clusters and aged in close to equal parts new and used French oak. There's only 400 cases of this elixir and it offers killer notes of black raspberries, blueberries, violets, licorice, exotic spices and flowers. Perfumed, complex and nuanced, and dare I say, singular, this full-bodied red has a thick, opulent texture, beautiful freshness and sweet tannin on the finish. SHIRAZ

VINTAGE 1998 BOTTLED 1999

Grange is recognised as Australia's and indeed one of the world's finest red wines. This great wine, developed by Max Schubert commencing with the 1951 vintage, is made from low yielding Shiraz vines grown at selected vineyards in South Australia and matured in new American oak hogsheads prior to bottling. During an extensive tour of Europe in 1950, Max Schubert studied winemaking practices that have now become an integral part of Penfolds' winemaking technique. He also observed the practice of maturing wine in new oak barrels, a method previously untried in Australia. The development of Grange represented the beginning of a new era in Australia's red winemaking tradition. This knowledge, combined with Max Schubert's foresight, skill and dedication, has resulted in Grange, the definitive Australian dry red wine, acknowledged to be among the world's classic wine styles.

The wine is composed entirely of Malbec and Cabernet Sauvignon. It is a bit more saturated than the 2005 with a splendid perfume of pain grillé, mineral, espresso, black cherry, and black raspberry that leaps from the glass. "As I mentioned in connection with the 2014, it's nice to see this estate offering a Spätlese under the same geographically narrow "Grosse Lage" site designation as the corresponding Grosses Gewächs – a way of calling attention to the fact that a residually sweet Spätlese can be as profoundly evocative of place as a dry, full-bodied wine. (That this calls for renewed demonstration, though, is a measure of how much Riesling wisdom has been willfully unlearned in the last couple of decades.) "We left those bunches that exhibited a bit of botrytis to hang for another week after harvesting the Grosses Gewächs," explained Franzen, and the resulting harvest was further sorted to make possible a separate Auslese. A colorful and decadently ripe amalgam of muskmelon, mango, peach, sweet lime and lychee delivers a heady, aromatic, lush palate performance. The feel here is flatteringly creamy and buoyant (at 9.5 percent alcohol), finishing with soothing persistence and a welcome influx of downright refreshing primary juiciness and mouthwatering salinity. It's certainly unapologetically sweet, but the sweetness suits its decadent personality and supports its luscious fruit." [Score: 92]

Rauenthal

"The 2014 Rauenthaler Nonnenberg Riesling offers a very pure and deep, yet rather closed bouquet of crushed stones and some lemon flavors. Coutet 2010

Barsac, 1er Cru Classé

"The 2010 Coutet, a blend of 75% Sémillon, 23% Sauvignon Blanc and 2% Muscadelle, is pale lemon-gold in color with a nose that explodes with decadent pineapple, mango and lemon meringue pie notes with touches of acacia honey, candle wax and yuzu. "The 2009 Climens is certainly more expressive on the nose compared to the 2010 Climens with potent honeysuckle, fresh pear and orange blossom that gently unfurl from the glass. Compared to the 2009 Rieussec for example, this is powerful but not quite as flamboyant. The palate is just fantastic, so energetic and tensile with layers of mineral, honeyed fruit laced with spice, sea salt, a touch of licorice and quince. "Tasted blind at the Sauternes 2011 horizontal tasting. The Château Doisy-Daëne 2011 builds upon its outstanding performance from barrel. It has a powerful bouquet with seductive scents of wild honey, yellow flowers and orange blossom that are well defined, perhaps a little more extravagant than Denis Dubourdieu's wines of yore. d'Yquem 2010

Sauternes, Premier Cru Supérieur

"The 2010 Château d'Yquem is an utterly stunning young wine and a very worthy follow-up to the magical wine produced at this estate in 2009. The bouquet is deep, complex and flat out brilliant, as it soars from the glass in a celestial mélange of pineapple, tangerines, a touch of passion fruit, honeycomb, beautifully complex and chalky soil tones, spring flowers and a very gentle touch of vanillin oak. On the palate the wine is deep, full-bodied, suave and utterly seamless, with great mid-palate depth, bright acids and surreal length and grip on the dancing and very intensely flavored finish. The 2010 d'Yquem is not quite as ethereally complex at this stage as the hauntingly beautiful 2009, but in terms of sheer quality, it seems likely to be every bit as profound." [Score: 98+]

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Bidders are strongly encouraged to read the Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale which describe the terms governing the purchase of all property sold at auction.

1. Definitions. As used in these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, the following words have the meaning set forth below:

Bidder is any person participating, making or attempting to make a bid at an Auction Sale.

Buyer is the person who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer, including the principal of any Bidder acting as an agent.

Buyer's Expense means all costs or expenses payable by the Buyer in addition to the Purchase Price, in connection with the sale, such as applicable storage costs.

Buyer's Premium is the commission payable by the Buyer to the Auctioneer in the amount of twenty-one percent (21%) of the Hammer Price.

Hammer Price is the bid accepted by the Auctioneer by the fall of the hammer, or in the case of a post auction sale, the agreed upon sales price.

Purchase Price is the sum of the Hammer Price, Buyer's Premium and all applicable taxes.

Reserve is the confidential minimum Hammer Price at which the Seller has agreed to sell a lot.

Seller is the person, including agents, personal representatives and executors, offering a lot or lots for sale

2. Auction Basics. This is a public wine auction sale (the "Auction Sale") conducted by SPECTRUM WINE AUCTIONS, LLC, a California limited liability company, a bonded auctioneer (referred to as "Auctioneer" or "Spectrum Wine Auctions"). Lot(s) may carry a Reserve. Prior to bidding, all participants must read and agree to the Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, which describe the terms governing the purchase of wine sold at the Auction Sale. By participating in the auction, a Bidder agrees to be bound by the Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale printed in the auction catalogue, posted on the Auctioneer's website or posted at the Auction Sale. As auctioneer, Spectrum Wine Auctions acts only as agent for the Seller. The sale contract for the lot(s) purchased at the Auction Sale is made directly between the Buyer and Seller. In those instances when the Auctioneer is the owner of a lot, it will also be the Seller.

Sellers may bid and purchase lot(s) in the Auction Sale consigned by them or by other Sellers. A Seller who re-acquires their own lots in the Auction Sale may pay a different fee, or no fee, than the Buyer's Premium charged to other Buyers, pursuant to their consignment agreement with the Auctioneer. Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to include its own wine, as well as wine from affiliated or related companies, principals, officers or employees, in any Auction Sale. Spectrum Wine Auctions may have direct or indirect interests in any of the lots in the Auction Sale and may collect commissions other than the Buyer's Premium. THE TWO PRECEDING SENTENCES SHALL BE DEEMED A PART OF THE DESCRIPTION OF ALL LOTS CONTAINED IN THE AUCTION CATALOGUE. When a Seller re-acquires a lot, Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to note this in the prices realized from the Auction Sale or to omit the price for such lots from the prices realized.

Spectrum Wine Auctions may bid for its own account at any Auction Sale without being required to pay a Buyer's Commission, or other charges that other Buyers may be required to pay.

3. Descriptions. To the Auctioneer's, knowledge, which is based primarily on information provided by Sellers, wines offered for sale have been properly stored prior to being delivered to our temperature and humidity-controlled storage facility. Each bottle has been described as accurately as possible. However, Buyers of older and more fragile wines should be aware of and make proper allowances for natural variations of ullage and general conditions. All Bidders are encouraged to inspect and investigate lots they are interested in prior to purchase. Bidder's acknowledge that Spectrum Wine Auctions is unable to conduct complete due diligence on each lot, and is not representing or warranting, and has no responsibility or liability for the accuracy of the catalogue descriptions, including without limitation, vintage, provenance, authenticity, quality and condition. Any and all statements relating to the wine in the catalogue, or contained in advertisements or promotional materials, are merely statements of opinion and should not be construed as, nor do they constitute representations or warranties of fact or the assumption of any liability on the part of Spectrum Wine Auctions or the Seller. All photographs in this catalogue are of the actual items being sold but may not be the actual size or to scale.

4. Bidder Registration Required. All persons seeking to bid must have a catalogue and register to bid at the Auction Sale by completing and signing a registration card or bid sheet. Please be prepared to provide bank references, identification and a major credit card. Major credit cards and/or driver's licenses will be required as identification. Bidders must be at least 21 years old and may be required to show proof of age. By submitting a bid, the Bidder acknowledges that Bidder has read the Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, the descriptions for the lot(s) on which they have bid, and that they agree to adhere to these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale. All Bidders are personally liable for their bids, whether or not acting as an agent. This agreement shall be deemed to have been made in California. The Bidder acknowledges that the invoice describing a lot by number incorporates the catalogue and Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale.

5. The Bidding Process. The Auctioneer may open or accept the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Seller, a mail, telephone, internet or telefax Bidder; or any other Bidder in the Auction Sale. The Auctioneer may accept or decline any bid, challenge any bid or set bidding increments, as the Auctioneer in its sole discretion shall determine. All wine shall be sold in separate lots to the highest Bidder as determined by the Auctioneer. Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. No lot will be broken up unless otherwise permitted by the Auctioneer. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise. Auctioneer shall have the right in its sole and absolute discretion to adjudicate all bidding disputes and shall have the right, but not the obligation, to rescind the acceptance of any bid and place the lot(s) for Auction Sale again. Auctioneer's decision on all bidding disputes shall be binding and final. For the mail and internet Bidder's protection, no "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. An absentee bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid; a Floor Bidder and Telephone Bidder must bid higher than the highest absentee bid to be awarded any lot. Auctioneer reserves the right to refuse any bid, to reduce any absentee bid received, to open the bidding of a lot at any level deemed appropriate by the Auctioneer and to determine the prevailing bid, in its sole discretion.

THIS IS NOT AN APPROVAL SALE. Bidders who physically attend the Auction Sale, either personally or through an agent ("Floor Bidders") should carefully examine all lots which they are interested in purchasing. Bidders who bid by telephone, either personally or through an agent, receive a similar benefit as Floor Bidders in being able to actively participate in the live Auction Sale ("Telephone Bidders"). Therefore, except as otherwise expressly provided in these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, ALL SALES ARE FINAL, WINE PURCHASED AT AUCTION MAY NOT BE RETURNED FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER BY ANY BIDDER. If it is determined in a review by Auctioneer that there is a material error in the catalogue description of a lot, the lot may be returned if written notice of the error is received by Auctioneer within seventy-two (72) hours of Buyer's receipt of the lot(s). Thereafter, the lot(s) must be returned and received by Auctioneer no later than fourteen (14) calendar days after such written notice, in the same condition the lot(s) were delivered to the Bidder, including all labels and in their original, wooden cases (if applicable). Late return constitutes just cause for revocation of all return privileges. All prospective Bidders who have the opportunity to examine the lot(s) prior to the Auction Sale have no return privileges and personally assume all responsibility for any damage caused by them in connection with examining the lot(s). Auctioneer shall have sole discretion in determining the value of the damage caused, which shall be promptly paid by the prospective Bidder.

AUCTIONEER IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ANY ERRORS IN BIDDING. A Bidder should make certain to bid on the correct lot and that the bid is the bid intended. Once the hammer has fallen and the Auctioneer has announced the winning Bidder, the auction sale is complete and the Bidder is unconditionally bound to pay for the lot, even if the Bidder has made a mistake. Auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw any lot at any time, even after the hammer has fallen, until the Bidder has taken physical possession of the lot. No Bidder shall have a right to claim any consequential damages if a lot is withdrawn, even after the Auction Sale.

6. Passage of Title and Other Conditions of Sale. Subject to fulfillment of all of the conditions set forth herein, on the fall of the Auctioneer's hammer, title to the offered lot will pass to the highest Bidder acknowledged and accepted by the Auctioneer, and thereupon, such Buyer assumes full risk and responsibility for the purchased lot. Buyer shall immediately pay the Purchase Price and all Buyer Expenses in full, in accordance with the conditions set forth herein. Payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until Auctioneer has collected good funds. In the event the Buyer fails to pay all or any portion of the total Purchase Price for any lot and Auctioneer nonetheless elects to pay the Seller all or any portion of the sale proceeds, the Buyer acknowledges that Auctioneer shall have all of the rights of the Seller to pursue the Buyer for any amounts paid to the Seller, whether at law, in equity, or under these Conditions of Sale.

7. Prices, Payment and Delivery. A Buyer's Commission of twenty-one percent (21%) of the Hammer Price on each individual lot will be added to all purchases (with the exception of re-acquisitions by Sellers). Payment is due immediately upon receipt of notification. Payment is delinquent and in default if not made in good funds in full within fourteen (14) days after the Auction Sale, without exception. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, auction sales are strictly cash in U.S. funds payable through a bank in the United States. On any cash transaction or series of transactions exceeding $10,000, Treasury Form 8300 will be filed. Contact Spectrum Wine Auctions for wiring instructions before sending a wire. Lots must be paid for prior delivery. Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to decline to release lots for which good funds have not yet been received. On any accounts past due, Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to extend credit and impose periodic charges. Bidder agrees to pay reasonable attorney's fees and cost incurred to collect on such past due accounts. Payment by Visa, Mastercard, American Express or Discover may be accepted only for bidders whose total purchases for the Auction Sale do not exceed $5,000. Bids will not be accepted from those persons under twenty-one (21) years of age. Bidders personally and unconditionally guarantee payment of the Purchase Price for all purchased lots and any amounts that are or become owed to Spectrum Wine Auctions. If a corporation is the Bidder, the corporate representative present at the sale shall provide Spectrum Wine Auctions at the time of registration with a statement signed by each principal, director and officer that they each personally and unconditionally guarantee any and all current or future obligations owed to Spectrum Wine Auctions or such other statement as may be acceptable to Spectrum Wine Auctions, in its sole discretion. Bidders who have not established credit with Spectrum Wine Auctions must furnish satisfactory credit references or deposit at least twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bids for that Auction Sale session(s) or such other amounts as Spectrum Wine Auctions may, in its sole and absolute discretion, require before such bids will be accepted. Deposits submitted will be applied to purchases. Any remaining deposits will be promptly refunded, upon clearance of funds.

Spectrum Wine Auctions will not assume responsibility for the shipping and packaging of purchased lots. It is the Bidder's responsibility to arrange for pick up or delivery of purchased lots within fourteen (14) days of the Auction Sale. All purchased lots are at Buyer's risk, including the responsibility to insure, at the earlier of pick up or fourteen (14) days after the Auction Sale. All packing and handling is at the Buyer's risk. Spectrum Wine Auctions will not be liable for any acts or omissions of third party packers or shippers.

Bidders who hold valid ABC licenses ("Licensees") who intend to bid should provide Auctioneer well in advance of the Auction Sale a photocopy of the license issued by their state's liquor authority. Licensees within the state of California should also provide a resale certificate. Lots purchased by licensees will be routed through a properly licensed California wholesaler, who will charge the applicable taxes and fees.

Bidders/Buyers are cautioned that many states impose restrictions on the quantity of alcoholic beverages which may be purchased and brought into its jurisdiction from another state. In some instances, special permits or licenses may be required for the Buyer or shipper. Spectrum Wine Auctions assumes no responsibility for any required permits or licenses.

If a Buyer pays the Purchase Price and all applicable Buyer's Expenses but fails to pick up a purchased lot within twenty-one (21) days of the Auction Sale, the lot will be stored at Spectrum Wine Auctions facility or with a third party at the Buyer's risk and expenses. Further, if such purchased lot is not picked up within six (6) months of the date of the Auction Sale, Buyer authorizes Spectrum Wine Auctions to arrange for a resale of the lot, either by auction or private sale, with reserves established at the Auctioneer's discretion. All proceeds, less cost of sale and any unpaid applicable Buyer's Expenses, will be remitted to the Buyer.

California residents will be charged sales tax as well as Bidders who pick up at the Auction without a valid Resale Certificate. On any tax not paid by Bidder which should have been paid, even if not collected by Spectrum Wine Auctions by mistake, error, negligence or gross negligence, Bidder agrees to promptly pay the same on demand together with any interest or penalty that may be assessed.

8. Financial Responsibility. In the event a Buyer fails to make payment when due, in addition to other remedies available to Auctioneer and the Seller by law, including without limitation, the right to hold the Buyer liable for the total Purchase Price, Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to rescind the sale or to resell the lot(s) in a commercially reasonable manner, which may include a public or private sale. Buyer agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale, together with any incidental costs of sale, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs, cataloguing and any other reasonable charges. Buyer grants to Spectrum Wine Auctions or its assignees the right to offset any sums due, or found to be due to Spectrum Wine Auctions or its affiliates, and to make such offset from any past, current, or future consignment, or purchases that are in the possession or control of Spectrum Wine Auctions or its affiliates; or from any sums due to Buyer from Spectrum Wine Auctions or its affiliates. In addition, a defaulting Buyer will be deemed to have granted and assigned to Spectrum Wine Auctions and its affiliated companies, a continuing security interest of first priority in any property or money of or owing to such Buyer in our possession or in the possession of any of its affiliated companies, and Spectrum Wine Auctions may retain and apply such property or money as collateral security for the obligations due to us or to any of its affiliates. We shall have all of the rights accorded a secured party under the California Uniform Commercial Code. Such defaulting Buyer grants Spectrum Wine Auctions the right to file a UCC-1 financing statement for such items and to assign such interest to any affiliated or related company or any third party deemed appropriate by Spectrum Wine Auctions. If the auction invoice is not paid for in full when due per invoice terms, the unpaid balance will earn interest at the rate of one-and-one-half percent (1-1/2%) per month until it is paid in full. In the event this interest rate exceeds the interest permitted by law, the same shall be adjusted to the maximum rate permitted by law, and any amount paid in excess thereof shall be allocated to principal. Buyer agrees to pay all reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and other collection costs incurred by Spectrum Wine Auctions or any affiliated or related company to collect past due invoices or to interpret or enforce the terms hereof or in any action or proceeding arising out of or related to the Auction Sale. Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to assign its interest to any third party. To the extent that the winning Bidder for any lot consists of more than one person or entity, each such person or entity is jointly and severally liable for all obligations of the Bidder, regardless of the title or capacity of such person or entity.

9. DISCLAIMER AND WARRANTIES. NO WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE IS MADE OR IMPLIED ON ANY LOT. NO WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, IS MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY LOT EXCEPT FOR WARRANTY OF TITLE, AND IN THE CASE OF TITLE, THE AUCTION IS SELLING ONLY THAT RIGHT OR TITLE TO THE LOT THAT THE SELLER MAY HAVE AS OF THE AUCTION SALE DATE. ALL LOTS ARE SOLD "AS IS" AND WITH ALL FAULTS. BUYER HEREBY ASSUMES ALL RISKS CONCERNING AND RELATED TO THE QUALITY, DESCRIPTION, CONDITION, AUTHENTICITY, AND PROVENANCE OF A LOT.

10. Waiver and Release. Bidder, for himself, his heirs, agents, successors and assignees, generally and specifically waives and releases, and forever discharges Spectrum Wine Auctions, and its respective affiliates, parents, shareholders, agents, subsidiaries, employees, officers, members of their respective boards of directors, and each of them, and their respective successors and assignees from any and all claims, rights, demands and causes of actions and suits, of whatever kind or nature, including but not limited to claims based upon Auctioneer's negligence, whether in law or equity, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, which Bidder may claim to have with respect to and/or arising out of, or in connection with any challenge to the title to any goods purchased, the sale itself, any lot bid upon or consigned, and/or the Auction Sale. It is the intention of Bidder that this waiver and release shall be effective as a bar to each and every claim, demand, cause of action and suit that may arise hereunder or be related to the Auction Sale, and Buyer hereby knowingly and voluntarily waives any and all rights and benefits otherwise conferred upon him by the provisions of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which reads in full as follows:

"A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS WHICH THE CREDITOR DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE, WHICH IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER MUST HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR."

11. Disputes. If a dispute arises concerning ownership of a lot that has been bid upon or concerning proceeds of any sale, Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to commence a statutory inter-pleader proceeding at the expense of the Seller and successful Bidder and any other applicable party, and in such event shall be entitled to its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. Spectrum Wine Auctions reserves the right to cancel or postpone the Auction Sale or any session thereof for a reasonable period of time for any reason whatsoever. Neither Spectrum Wine Auctions nor any affiliated or related company shall be responsible for incidental or consequential damages arising out of any failure of the Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, the Auction Sale or the conduct thereof and in no event shall such liability exceed the purchase price, premium, or fees paid. If the Bidder fails to comply with one or more of these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale, then, in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Spectrum Wine Auctions may at its sole option either (a) rescind the sale, retaining all payments made by Bidder as liquidated damages, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell a portion or all of the lot(s) held by Spectrum Wine Auctions, in a quantity sufficient in the opinion of Spectrum Wine Auctions to satisfy the indebtedness, plus all accrued charges, and Spectrum Wine Auctions may sell such portion at an Auction Sale or private sale conducted by Spectrum Wine Auctions and charge a seller's commission that is commercially reasonable. More than one such sale may take place at the option of Spectrum Wine Auctions. Notice of the sale shall be by U.S.P.S. Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested to the address utilized on the Bid Sheet, Auction Consignment and Security Agreement or other last known address by Spectrum Wine Auctions. The proceeds shall be applied first to the satisfaction of any damages occasioned by Bidder's breach, then to any other indebtedness owed to Spectrum Wine Auctions, including without limitation, commissions, handling charges, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, collection agency fees and costs and any other costs or expenses incurred. Bidder shall also be liable to Spectrum Wine Auctions if the proceeds of such sale or sales are insufficient to cover the indebtedness. Rights granted to Bidders under the within Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale are personal and apply only to the Bidder who initially purchases the lot(s) from Spectrum Wine Auctions. The rights may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by sale of the lot(s), operation of law or otherwise. Any attempt to assign or transfer any such rights shall be absolutely void and unenforceable. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred by these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale.

12. General Terms. These Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale and the auction shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of California, regardless of the location of the Auction Sale. Any dispute arising out of or related to these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the Auction Sale or any lot, with the sole exception of actions by Spectrum Wine Auctions to collect the purchase price and other damages, shall be determined by arbitration in Orange County, California, before one arbitrator. The arbitration shall be administered by JAMS pursuant to its Streamlined Arbitration Rules and Procedures. Judgment on the Award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. This clause shall not preclude parties from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall in the Award, allocate all or part of the costs of the arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrator and the reasonable attorneys' fees of the prevailing party. The Arbitrator shall have the authority to award compensatory damages (as may be limited by these Terms and Conditions) and reasonable attorney's fees and cost to the prevailing party, but shall not have the power to award punitive or consequential damages or to amend, modify, expand or excuse performance of any material term of these Terms and Conditions.

The arbitrator shall be required to follow applicable law. The parties acknowledge the arbitration shall have limited discovery as determined by the arbitrator, to be completed within one hundred twenty (120) days of the appointment of the arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall be required to return his decision no later than thirty (30) days after completion of the arbitration hearing and shall include a statement of the findings of facts. The award of the arbitrator may be enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction. Bidder acknowledges and agrees that the competent courts of the State of California shall have exclusive jurisdiction, subject to the requirement to arbitrate, over any dispute(s) arising hereunder, regardless of any party's current or future residence or domicile. Bidder further agrees that venue shall be in the Superior Court in Orange County, in the State of California. Bidder agrees that any arbitration or legal action with respect to this Auction Sale is barred unless commenced within one (1) year of the date of this Auction Sale. These Terms and Conditions of Sale and the information on the Spectrum Wine Auction's website constitute the entire agreement between the parties hereto on the subject matter hereof and supersede all other agreements, understandings, warranties and representations concerning the subject matter hereof. If any section of these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale or any term or provision of any section is held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the remaining sections or terms and provisions of a section shall continue in full force and effect without being impaired or invalidated in any way. Spectrum Wine Auctions may at its sole and absolute discretion, make loans or advances to Sellers and/or Bidders.

Any and all claims that an item is not authentic must be made in writing to Spectrum Wine Auctions within seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of the item. Spectrum Wine Auctions will determine the authenticity of the item in its sole discretion.

All oral and written statements made by Spectrum Wine Auctions and its employees (including affiliated and related companies) are statements of opinion only, and are not warranties or representations of any kind, unless stated as a specific written warranty, and no employee or agent of Spectrum Wine Auctions has authority to vary or alter these Terms and Conditions of Auction Sale. Any alteration shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an officer of Spectrum Wine Auctions authorized to do so.

Bidders shall have no recourse against the Seller for any reason whatsoever.

Bidder acknowledges and agrees that neither Spectrum Wine Auctions, nor its employees, affiliates, agents, third-party providers or Sellers warrant that auctions will be unimpaired, uninterrupted or error free and accordingly shall not be liable for such events.

13. Special Services. If you wish to limit your total expenditures, please fill in the maximum amount you wish to spend on the MAXIMUM EXPENDITURE line at the upper portion of your bid sheet. You can then submit bids for amounts up to eight times the amount of the maximum expenditure. This is a personal service and a Spectrum Wine Auctions customer representative will personally attend to your bid sheet by bidding from the auction floor, buying lots for your account until your authorized expenditure is reached. While we will do our best in your behalf, due to the speed of the auction sale and the sometimes crowded conditions, we cannot be responsible for failure to execute such a bid properly. Due to the bookkeeping involved, this service is offered only to bidders with maximum expenditures of $1,000 or more.

14. Sale of Spirits. All spirits sold in this auction are sold under the Rolf's Wine & Spirits alcohol license at 110 Tustin Ave Newport Beach CA 92663.

For PRICES REALIZED after the sale, call 1-888-982-1982 or +1-949-748-4845. Preliminary prices realized will also be posted on the Internet soon after the session closes at www.spectrumwine.com.
